

OLIVER DAY IS FARMER'S DAY SATURDAY, MARCH 10

According to our custom of several years' standing, we will give away--absolutely free--one of our latest improved OLIVER RIDING CULTIVATORS. We do this for two reasons: one is, we think it a splendid way to start the spring business off with a kind of get-together scheme, where we can exchange ideas. We aim to have men qualified to speak on modern farm topics, also on correct implement construction. We are expecting a large number of the farmers of this vicinity to be our guests that day. The other is: we want to show the farmers a complete line of farming tools from a 20-horse power tractor down to a double-shovel. Tools that will help to produce the results necessary to the welfare of all.

Local and Personal News.

Robert Fenner, the new pharmacist at Dr. Trutmann's Drug Store, is making new friends rapidly. He takes quite an interest in showing those who come to that place of business that he is anxious to serve them. He began right from the start by having his name placed on the Herald list.

When thinking of doing your spring painting come to us and we will be glad to help you make a right selection of good paints and varnishes. East Arkansas Lumber Co.,

Miss Neva Yancy of St. Louis arrived Sunday to take up her duties at the Buckley Store as milliner. Miss Yancy comes well recommended and as she is a very delightful young lady we are sure she will make many friends while here.

Notice to Hunters.

The undersigned hereby notify hunters that further trespassing on their premises will be followed by a vigorous prosecution. This includes all kinds of hunters and fishermen. GEO. MERRILL.
Note.—Names added to this list at 25 cents per year.

Rev. S. E. Hamilton, of Cardwell came down last Sunday, and accepted the call of the Baptist Church as pastor, and will move to the field in a few days, and it is said that he will begin a revival meeting the 3rd, Sunday in March.

Springtime is paint time, but to get the right kind of paint go to East Arkansas Lumber Co., and Billy Nethery will help you in the selection.

Mrs. S. L. Oates returned Saturday morning from several weeks stay in New Orleans, La., visiting a sister.

The Farmer's Creed.

I believe in Red Clover.
I believe in Cowpeas.
I believe in Soy Beans, and above all, I believe in Alfalfa, the Queen of Forage plants.
I believe in permanent agriculture, a soil that shall grow richer rather than poorer year by year.

I believe in 75 bushels corn and 40 bushels wheat, and shall not be satisfied with less.

I believe the only good weed is a dead weed—and that a clean farm is as important as a clean conscience.

I believe in the farm boy and the farm girl, the farmer's best crop and the future's best hope.

I believe in the farm woman, and will do all in my power to make her life easier and happier.
I believe in the country school that prepares for country life—and a country church that teaches its people to love deeply and live honorably.

I believe in community spirit, a pride in home and neighbors—and will do my part to make my community the best in the state.

I believe in better roads, and will use the road drag conscientiously whenever the opportunity offers.

I believe in happiness.
I believe in the power of the smile, and will use mine on every possible occasion.

I believe in the farm.
I believe in farm life.
I believe in the inspiration of the open country, and am proud to be a farmer—and will try earnestly to be worthy of my name!—Author Unknown.

For City Marshal.

The Herald this week is authorized to announce to the people of Hayti that W. E. Robertson is again a candidate for re-election as City Marshal, subject to the will of the voters at the city election, held April 3, 1917.

For some time Mr. Robertson was in a quandary as to whether to be a candidate again, but owing to the solicitations from many of his friends he has again announced. He has served this city for the past four years.

Mr. Robertson has the confidence of those whom he has arrested as well as others, and they respect him. He feels he is entitled to your support for the reason he has always been found at his post of duty, doing his work as he thought proper, and showing no partiality to anyone. He asks that you give him a just consideration and will try and talk the matter over with each voter. He asks your vote on Tuesday April 3rd, 1917.

Exhausted Market.

Mrs. Gramercy—"I'm having the greatest difficulty in finding a new cook." Gramercy—"That doesn't surprise me in the least, my dear. You seem to have had about all the cooks there are on the market."

Exchange Notes.

Caruthersville Argus: L. H. Gale of Concord was in town Saturday and left some of his seed corn for display purposes.

 H. W. Rives, accompanied by S. L. Robinson, Mr. Culp and others of Deering were in town Saturday, selling creamery stock and made some sales. We feel sure this would be a paying investment for that section, as well as others in the county.  The county road crew is now located at Hayti and is working on the road between Hayti and Pascola.

There were four men till R. F. Hedges, who is in charge of the crew, took out three new ones Tuesday. It is said much good work is being done.  Mr. and Mrs. Underhill, Mrs. Emmett Varner and Mrs. Riley Summers of Hayti, made a short visit here Monday afternoon to Mrs. E. M. McNeill and Mrs. Harvey E. Averill. ***

Jonnie Williams, who has been keeping the county prisoners, has moved to Hayti where he will still take care of them.
Collin Morgan came over from Paragould to auction off the Dick Cook farm for Bragg & McKay last Saturday. He went from Kennett to Hayti to visit his sons, Fred and Charles, both prominent business men of that place.—Kennett Democrat.

Very Brave.

Percy William—"You need not fear tramps or rough men when you are with me, darling. I'm a champion runner, and if we were attacked I'd run off and bring help to you in no time."

Loses Three Fingers.

Thursday afternoon, James J. Utley who recently removed here from Missouri had the misfortune to lose the ends of three fingers on his right hand when a cow he was attempting to lead became unmanageable.

Mr. Utley in company with Alvin Moore had been to the Schick farm near Caborn to bring home a cow that the former had purchased and were returning along the Fourth street road when near the Menzies' farm the animal became unruly and in trying to quiet her he threw the rope around a telephone pole. Mr. Utley was thrown to the ground and in falling three of his fingers became caught between the rope and the pole. He was brought to Dr. R. L. Hardwick's office where it was found that amputation was necessary.—Mt. Vernon (Ind.) Democrat.

Hon. Joe J. Russell, the next Democratic Governor of Missouri, by opinion of the Herald, has our thanks for a renewal Herald subscription.

All kinds of paints, varnishes, shellacs, glass and putty can be found at the East Arkansas Lumber Co., yard.

From our conversation with Lois Dycus the Herald is led to believe there is quite an attraction at Morehouse for him.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and in order to cure it you must take an internal remedy. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Hall's Catarrh Medicine was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years. It is composed of some of the best tonics known, combined with some of the best blood purifiers. The perfect combination of the ingredients in Hall's Catarrh Medicine is what produces such wonderful results in catarrhal conditions. Send for testimonials, free.
